ANNOUNCEMENT OF JOB OPENING
PRINCIPAL, SAINT JOSEPH CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Saint Joseph Catholic School in Fort Collins, Colorado is seeking qualified applicants for the position of principal who demonstrate leadership qualities and an eye to the future in education. The qualified candidate must be a practicing member of the Roman Catholic faith, have a Master’s Degree with at least 20 hours in educational administration, and a minimum of five years teaching experience in a Catholic school.

Saint Joseph Catholic School opened in 1926 and is located on the beautiful Saint Joseph Catholic Parish campus in desirable downtown Fort Collins. It currently serves 235 students in Preschool through 8th Grade with a staff of 35, and is consistently a top performer in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools. Saint Joseph Catholic School is supported by five vibrant Catholic parishes.

Fort Collins is located in northern Colorado, nestled against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. It is home to Colorado State University. Innovative industry, fabulous recreational opportunities, and extensive cultural attractions make Fort Collins a wonderful place to live and work.
