AVID Tutors, West Allis Central High School

AVID’s mission is to close the achievement gap by preparing all students for college readiness and success in a global society.

The AVID tutor position consists of facilitating study groups, sorting students into study groups, assessing study group forms, and checking binders.

The hours are 12:15 to 3:00 every Tuesday and Thursday and every other Friday and the pay is $10 an hour. Training for this position will be paid for and conducted at Central.

If you know of anyone who is interested they can apply through WECAN or just send a resume to Kent Kleinowski at kleinowskik@wawmsd.org.