What: I am looking for a tutor for my son who has learning disabilities and is a sophomore at Shorewood high school. The tutor’s responsibilities would include: helping him with the organization and planning of his homework load, getting him ready for quizzes and tests and, above all, help him figure out learning strategies. I would pay $10.00 per hour. The tutor would have to have a good knowledge of high school math and biology.

Where: 2410 East Shorewood Blvd.

When: Preferably twice a week on days both parts agree.
