The CECP GSO hosts Professional Development Conferences (PDC) to provide students and professionals with unique learning opportunities for the continued development of counselors and counseling psychologists. These conferences also facilitate invaluable networking opportunities for students to connect with others in the department and in the community. RSVP by emailing elizabeth.wescott@marquette.edu

PDC SCHEDULE:

Thursday 09/25 at 7:00pm SC112
Working with Veterans
Dr. Jessica Brundage and Dr. Catherine Coppolillo will be speaking on special considerations to be mindful of when working with veterans.

Thursday 10/23 at 7:00pm in SC 112
Licensure and Doctoral Application Process
A professional panel will share their experiences with pursuing different professional and educational options after graduating from a master’s program. The panel includes licensed professional counselors, psychologists, and current doctoral students. They will discuss gaining licensure at the master's and doctoral levels, as well as their experiences with applications and employment. You are encouraged to bring a list of questions.

Thursday 11/20 at 7:00pm in SC 112
Working with Children: Bullying
Dr. Kelly Groh will be speaking about the special implications and considerations when working with bullies and their victims.

Please note the MU CECP Department is approved to offer continuing education credits to counselors through NBCC and to Wisconsin Psychologists through the WI DRL

FALL TRAINING:

10/24 9am–4:00pm (Half Hour for Lunch) SC 151 (The Hartman Center)
Cost $10.00 GSO Members, $15.00 Non-Members

Dr. Susannah Bartlow will be providing a Safe-Zone training for students to deepen their knowledge and understanding of gender diversity and specific issues pertinent to those who identify as LGBTQ. This will enable a better capacity to support and advocate as a professional. This training is the first step in obtaining a Safe-Zone credential, which will be useful in a school, clinic, or hospital setting. Participation is limited to 24 people, so please reserve your spot by emailing Liz Wescott at elizabeth.wescott@marquette.edu
