

Enrollment Categories for the Marquette University Master of Science in Engineering Management Program

Students accepted into the Engineering Management Program can enter the program at various status levels. The purpose of this document is to describe the levels and conditions for moving up the sequence of levels.

(This document is under construction)