Supplemental material is not necessary and will not necessarily influence an admission decision.

Students choose to provide additional recommendation letters. We encourage students to save additional letters for the committee a chance to get to know each student as an individual and not as a series of numbers.

The essay and extracurricular activities give the committee a chance to get to know each student as an individual and not as a series of numbers. Both the essay and extracurricular activities give the committee a chance to get to know each student as an individual and not as a series of numbers. We require only the counselor recommendation form; many scholarship applications have a February 1 postmark deadline.

We recognize that class rank and grade point averages mean different things at different schools. When making an evaluation, we try to get a sense of how an individual student has performed relative to his/her peers given all the information we have been provided.

We super score the SAT.
