Why Marquette College of Education?
Dean Henk and current Marquette education majors will discuss their experiences and answer your questions.

11:00 am
Making the Transition from High School to College
Even for the most well qualified students, university level academic challenges can exceed expectations. This workshop will walk parents through the fundamental differences between high school and college learning. We will also discuss how the services at Marquette offer students opportunities for honing learning strategies that lead to academic success in college.

12:00 pm
