

Consider the Mashuda Hall Guest Wing

Interviewing a job candidate? Looking for a place to house a speaker? Hosting a small seminar or learning institute? Need a temporary home for new faculty or staff? Consider reserving a room at the Mashuda Hall Guest Wing for your campus visitors.

Operated by Conference Services and the Office of Residence Life, the Guest Wing offers guests a comfortable, cost-efficient and convenient alternative to area hotel accommodations. Located on the third floor of Mashuda Hall at 1926 W. Wisconsin Avenue, the Guest Wing features 19 double occupancy rooms available for overnight bookings for a single night to several months.

All guest rooms feature air-conditioning, two extra-long twin beds with pillows and linens, two dressers and ample closet space, a desk and chair, full bath with linens, TV with cable hook-up, Internet access, telephone with free local and campus service, a microwave-refrigerator unit, a clock radio and iron/ironing board. Other appealing amenities at an additional charge include parking in nearby campus lots, guest access to the Rec Center or Rec Plex and in-hall dining service.

Mashuda Hall's convenient access to the Marquette University campus, public transportation along Wisconsin Avenue as well as the numerous restaurants, specialty shops, entertainment and cultural attractions of Downtown Milwaukee are additional benefits to staying in the Guest Wing.

Guest Wing rooms at Mashuda Hall are available at single or double occupancy rates throughout the year. To inquire about reserving a room for a night, a week or a full month, call the Office of Residence Life at 8-7208.
