Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Dr. Conor Kelly
Course #: THEO 1001
Sections: 125, 127
Course Title: Introduction to Theology
Topic: God, Faith, the Good Life

Description:

This course introduces theology as an academic discipline, inviting students to consider the unique attributes of theological reasoning and to evaluate the impact and significance of the Christian theological tradition. The course will focus on the ways in which Christianity in general, and the Catholic intellectual tradition in particular, offer resources for a more critical examination of the nature and meaning of human existence and the good life. Throughout the course students will be encouraged to explore the relevance of this intellectual heritage for their own lives.
