UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Stephen E. Waers
Course #: THEO 1001
Sections: 126, 701
Course Title: Introduction to Theology
Topic: How to Operate Your Bible

Description:

Christian theology arises from and seeks to explain the encounter with Jesus Christ. This introduction to Christian theology seeks to articulate the identity of Jesus within the narrative arc of Christian scripture. This will serve as the foundation from which we address historical and contemporary theological questions.

This course has three main goals: 1) develop an understanding of the narrative arc of Christian scripture--biblical literacy; 2) articulate the identity of Jesus Christ within the narrative arc of scripture; 3) develop the tools necessary to think theologically about a variety of issues by using this biblical and Christological foundation.

Major Requirements:
Reading Quizzes (15%)
1 Paper (25%)
3 Exams (60% = 20% each)
