2000–08, according to the 2011 Statistical Yearbook of the Church, the population of African Catholics grew 33 percent compared with Europe, which remained generally stable — an increase of 1.17 percent. Asia also increased by 15.61 percent, Oceania by 11.39 percent and (Latin) America by 10.93 percent. Speakers will address this issue and more:

+ How has the Vatican Council II impacted the Catholic churches in LaFricAsia?
+ How does world Christianity respond to the challenges of globalization?
+ Which aspects of African Christianity should be strengthened in light of the reforms of Pope Francis?

Pre-registration or on-site registration: $30. To register or for questions or special needs, please contact Dr. Joseph Ogbonnaya at joseph.ogbonnaya@marquette.edu.

The event is free for all Marquette faculty, staff and students.
