UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2015
Instructor: Mark Chapman
Course #: THEO 2200
Section: 101
Course Title: The Bible Through the Ages

Description:

This course is designed to provide students with an historical, theological, and hermeneutical overview of the Bible. The course consists of four main emphases: 1) how Christian communities view the Bible, 2) how the Bible came to be (its origin, canon formation, and transmission), 3) how one reads and interprets the Bible in a theologically informed way, and 4) how the Bible has been interpreted by various Christian communities throughout the centuries. In addition to Scripture, students will have the opportunity to explore ancient, medieval, and modern texts.
