UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Summer 2015 (Sess. 1)
Instructor: Ulrich Lehner
Course #: THEO 2210
Section: 101 (Distance Learning)
Course Title: Theology through the Centuries

Description:

For this course we will be focusing generally on medieval theology, from the New Testament, through St. Augustine of Hippo, up to the thirteenth century. We will focus in particular upon the writings Augustine (died 430), St. Anselm (died 1109), and Thomas Aquinas (died 1274). These three thinkers and saints have a special relationship to the medieval phenomenon known as “scholasticism.” We will consider their teachings on God and Jesus Christ, as well as the key topic of faith’s relationship to reason.
