Course #:  THEO 2400
Section:  101
Course Title:  Christian Discipleship

Description:

The gospels depict Jesus calling disciples to follow him, but how does this call to discipleship relate to our modern world? This course will explore various facets of the call to discipleship in relation to culture, family, the economy, politics, and the environment in an effort to develop a contemporary understanding of discipleship. Particular efforts will be made to connect Biblical and theological understandings of discipleship to concrete case studies discussed during class. By the end of the course students should understand how the call to discipleship is a call to a life of justice, spirituality, and grace.
