Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Jakob K. Rinderknecht
Course #: THEO 2400
Section: 102
Course Title: Christian Discipleship

Description:
Christians are called to follow Jesus as disciples. They have received a divine and personal call to a life of holiness, faith, and living out the virtues, especially justice and the preferential option for the poor.

The particular ways of life that Christians have pursued as ways of fulfilling this call are rooted in common ways of life and formed by common practices. In this course, we will examine what it means to be a disciple of Jesus and study the means by which the Christian community has historically formed people to fulfill that calling. We will pay particular attention to the Christian liturgy and the spiritual life as means of forming people for discipleship.
