UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Jason Bermender
Course #: THEO 3010
Section: 101
Course Title: Hebrew Scriptures/Old Testament Selected Books
Topic: The Pentateuch

Description:

Study of the first five books of the Bible commonly called the Torah or Pentateuch. Attention will be focused on the development and overall unity of this corpus in its historical context as well as the relationship between the Pentateuch and the other books of the Bible. Diachronic and synchronic methods will employed in exegeting specific passages to understand the relationship between God and Israel within these books.
