UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Dr. Christopher Spotts
Course #: THEO 3420
Section: 101
Course Title: Bridging the Racial Divide

Description:

This course will discuss the problem of race in the contemporary world. Focus will be placed on the existence of white privilege, and the extent to which it may be indicative of a systematization of racism. The course will also seek to address the ways in which the Church and Christian theology have contributed to the problem of racism and possible resources within the Christian tradition for finding a way forward.
