GRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2015
Instructor: Dr. Ulrich Lehner
Course #: THEO 8450, section 101
Course Title: Special Questions in the History of Christian Thought
Topic: Discourses on Modernity

Content:

This course will discuss a variety of concepts and ideas crucial to our understanding of theological modernity such as the Reformation, Religious Toleration, superstition and magic, Nationalism as Religious Ideology, Biblical Exegesis in the context of Spinoza, Michaelis and Herder, Racism and Anti-Semitism, and one of the main catalysts of modernity, the French Revolution.

Format:

Assignments and/or Examinations:

Language Pre-requisites: